

Sam is a leading business and sustainability advisor with an extensive background in business, civil society, law and politics. She is Non-executive Director of corporate, sport, arts and not for profit boards including Virgin Australia, Transurban, Mirvac, and CoverMore. She is Chair of Citibank's Australian retail business. Sam also serves as chair of Carriageworks, and on the boards of the GO Foundation, ClimateWorks Australia and the Climate Council.

Sam is the President of the Australian Council for International Development, after serving for many years on the board of Australian Volunteers International. She served as a Commissioner for the Australian Football League for over a decade and on both the National Mental Health Commission and the National Sustainability Council . She is Deputy Chair of the Diversity Council of Australia, and was recently appointed to the Global Commission on Business and Sustainable Development.

Prior to serving on boards, Sam had an extensive executive career in the communications, finance and insurance sectors serving as the Group Executive, Culture & Reputation at Insurance Australia Group, Director of Corporate Development and Human Resources at Cable & Wireless Plc and Director of Corporate Affairs for Optus Communications. She trained as a lawyer and before pursuing her business career she was a policy advisor to a number of Federal Ministers before serving as a Senior Advisor (Communications) to then Prime Minister Paul Keating.

SAM MOSTYN

KTF is thrilled to welcome Sam to deliver the 2016 Ralph Honner Leadership Oration.